Dear families,

As a part of our Inquiry unit this term, we will be looking at the contributions made to our community by people from various cultural backgrounds. Therefore Grades 3/4A, 4/5A and 5/6A will be visiting the Dandenong Market to explore foods and meet people with multicultural backgrounds.

Date: Tuesday 4th March, 2014
Destination: Dandenong Market and Pioneer Memorial Park Dandenong
Departure Times: 10.00am, returning to school approximately 2pm.
Parent Helpers: We require at least 4 parent helpers for each class. Please speak to your class teacher if you are able to help. This excursion will not be able to go ahead if we do not receive adequate parent help. (Please note: no extra children are allowed)
Morning Tea and Lunch: Children can either bring their own morning tea and lunch from home to eat on the excursion, or bring between $5 to $10 on the day to spend at the market and purchase something international to try.
Uniform: Full school uniform is required, including a hat.
Costs: $10 to be paid to office before due date (for bus)

---

Due Date: Tuesday 28th February.
NO LATE PAYMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Yours sincerely,
Carol Laidlaw, Rebecca Lewry and Janet Leerentveld
