Whole School Excursion- Coal Creek Community Park & Museum, Korumburra

To celebrate our school's 100 year anniversary we will be heading to the Coal Creek Community Park and Museum for a whole school excursion. This is a fantastic opportunity for all students to interact with each other and to share a positive learning experience..

Students in grades Prep-6 will take part in 3 of the educational sessions on offer. These will include an old fashioned School Visit, Bush Cooking and a visit to the General Store. This is a whole school excursion which all students may attend on the proviso that students have demonstrated consistent, acceptable behaviour prior to the excursion. The excursion is also linked to our school's history curriculum that your child has been studying at school.

Date: Friday 21st October 2016 Time: depart 8.45am SHARP Please be at school no later than 8.30am Destination: Coal Creek Museum, Korumburra
